Headmaster's Statement

Today's Thanksgiving game is indeed a special occasion for me. Ever since my father took me to my first Latin/English football game, I have been a devoted fan. During my years as a member of the professional staff and as Assistant Head Master at Boston Latin School, I have continued to enjoy the special tradition of this rivalry.

The legend endures, the competition continues, and the game sparks much discussion about the great plays of times past. My wish for today is a continuation of this annual contest. My thanks to all: the coaches, the team members, the cheerleaders, the pep squad and all the parents and alums who support the athletic program the spirit and the camaraderie continue because of all of you. Sumus Primi!

Best Wishes to Head Master Sullivan and the English High School coaches and the English High School coaches and athletes. May this tradition prosper under the banner of good sportsmanship.

Latin Fight Song

On the Field of Many Colors
Latin's banners fly
Cheer on,
cheer like volley thunder
Echoes to the sky

See the Latin team advancing
Gaining more and more
So we'll fight, fight, fight
With all our might
Dear Old Latin evermore.

ENGLISH HIGH SCHOOL – 1998

November 26, 1998

Dear Students, Parents, Alumni and Friends:

Once again, on Thanksgiving, our schools come together to play a game as steeped in tradition as the two schools themselves. This football game reflects all that is right with high school sports.

After three Super Bowls in the last five years, The English High School team is rebuilding. We are exceptionally proud of the achievements of this young team. This game, like every game before it, will be hard-fought to the end and will take its place in the long tradition of the English-Latin games.

To all students and alumni of both schools, we are proud of your spirit and thank you for your enthusiasm. To the players of both teams, we wish you good luck!
